

Syllabus for Exploring Chengdu City

1. Teaching goal

The course is to better inform students about regional culture, custom and living habits, as well as providing them opportunities to experience local life via theoretical learning and field trip. Students are expected to adjust themselves to local life more easily and obtain real-life regional culture. Meanwhile, this course would be helpful in acquiring language knowledge because students will be in real-life situations.

2. Content

The course will cover living styles, foods, communications, dialect, arts, architecture, modernization and tradition.

3. Arrangement

The course will last 16 weeks, 90 minutes each week, and students are required to complete lectures, homework, class discussion, oral report, field trip and final report. the details will be as follows: